STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

At Hyden, Leslie county, Grant Burton was shot and fatally wounded by Joe Thompson.

THE town of Auburn, in Lyon county, voted down a graded school by a majority of four votes.

THE Frankfort Witness is running J. Polk Moore as an independent candidate for the Legislature.

BENJAMIN THORP, a Middlesborough merchant, has made an assignment. Assets $2,300; liabilities $4,000.

THE Commonwealth says that Hon. George Washington, of Newport, will take the stump for the new Constitution.

THE corner-stone of the Kentucky Wesleyan College was laid at Winchester last Tuesday with appropriate ceremonies.

At Inez, Martin county, recently, Steward McNiely and Frank Hurley shot and fatally wounded each other in a drunken row.

THE Democratic primary in Henry county resulted in the nomination of J. T. Bashaw for Representative. The vote was very light.

LOUISVILLE authorities landed twelve convicts in the penitentiary last week, whose sentences aggregate thirty-four years six months.

DEPUTY Marshal Downey, of Maysville, has been bound over in the sum of $3,000 to answer for the murder of Henry Lewis last week.

THE journeyman tailors at Paris are on a strike for higher wages. They demand an advance from $15 to $20 for making a dress coat.

DR. OLIVER PERRY HIM, one of the best known physicians in Central Kentucky, died at Lancaster, in the seventy-ninth year of his age.

THE Census Bureau statistics on tobacco show there are 61,641 planters in Kentucky, cultivating 274,587 acres. The total product last year was 221,880,303 pounds valued at $13,335,297.

THE Metcalfe county correspondent of the Glasgow Times says the wheat crop is less promising than it was a month ago, and that there is much complaint of an insect that is troubling young apples.

R. H. GRIMSLEY, a prominent farmer and speculator, who lives near Glencoe, shot and instantly killed Albert Henry. Grimsley and a colored man were quarreling, and Henry took side with the latter.

HARROWGATE INN, at the new mountain town near Middlesborough, one of the finest resort hotels in the South, was burned to the ground last week. It was owned mostly by Eastern and English capitalists.

THE Wiggington boys—Charles, John and Frank, of Montgomery county, were found guilty of putting arsenic in the coffee of Wm. Ferguson, causing his death, and were sentenced to imprisonment for life.

THE trial of Lee Jenkins, for the murder of Washington Ramsey, about six weeks ago, has been concluded in the Fayette Circuit Court, the jury returning a verdict of guilty, and fixing his punishment at death.

WHILE the new Baptist church at Lafayette, was being dedicated, Miss Doss, a daughter of the pastor of the church, and Mr. Thacker, a prominent young man of the vicinity, eloped across the Tennessee State line and were married.

EPHRAIM WILLIS, aged 20, and Florence, seventeen-year-old daughter of Dr. J. M. Wilson, of Lyon county, eloped. They left home on foot and had walked seventeen miles when overtaken at Benton by Dr. Wilson, who gave pursuit. In their flight the couple had crossed two rivers, but how is not known. The girl wept bitterly when taken from her sweetheart. Willis is an unsophisticated farm-hand and the girl is quite intelligent.

LUTHER POTTER, an inmate of the Western Lunatic asylum, made his escape by cutting through the sash of his window and letting himself down from his cell, which was on the third floor, by means of a rope made out of the sheets of his bed. He had descended only a short distance when the sheets tore apart, hurling him to the ground. One of his arms was broken, the bones at the elbow being terribly shattered. He made his way to Elkton, Todd county, where his wounds were dressed, and he was captured by the asylum authorities. He hails from Bowling Green.

OVER THE WORLD IN A WEEK.

—Lightning played a curious and almost incredible freak at Urbana, Ohio, recently. A little son of Colonel George W. Leonard is a pupil at the Fourth Ward School, and wears eye-glasses. A flash of lightning struck the rim of the glasses and ran around the same, melting off the ends back of the ears. The sensation was plainly felt, but the boy was not injured.

—A wealthy farmer named Christopher Weighler, living near Washington, Ind., left his home, telling his wife he intended to kill a hawk. Instead he went behind his barn and blew his head off with a musket. No cause assigned.

—At Brownsburg, Md., Oliver M. Cassidy mysteriously disappeared over a week ago. It has since been discovered that he had sold a large number of promissory notes before he left and that all were forgeries.

—At Montpelier, Ind., recently, vandals got their work in at the Batson Cemetery, five miles west of the city. Thirty-seven of the finest monuments were destroyed, and several others were more or less injured.

—Joseph Wendell, age 30 and unmarried, a well-known German citizen of Madison, Indiana, committed suicide by taking a dose of arsenic. He had been upon a spree for three or four days.

—The Republicans of Kansas have organized "The Knights of Reciprocity," a secret order having for its object "reciprocity among nations, between labor capital, and among men."

—Samuel Vanzant, of Richmond, Ind., was riding a horse to a place of shelter during a storm recently and a bolt of lightning killed the horse and seriously injured the rider.

—The Governor of West Virginia has refused to commute to life imprisonment the sentence of Sim Johnson, the colored man who is to be hung June 19 for raping a white girl.

—A bronze statue of Gen. Grant, presented by H. H. Kohlsaat, of Chicago, to the city of Galena, Ill., was unveiled there last week with appropriate ceremonies.

—Miss Mary Brown, of Indianapolis, injured in the wreck of an electric car, has recovered $4,500 damages against the Citizens' Street Railway Company of the city.

—At Roachdale, Ind., Dick Adams was shot through the heart by Noah Evans. The latter's wife claimed that Adams outraged her person some time ago.

—At Anderson, Ind., James Hanson, a farmer, was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for shooting Henry Dewitt in the neck on the night of December 23.

—Wm. Dunn was awarded $5,000 damages against the O. and M. railway in a suit at New Albany, Ind. He was badly hurt while coupling cars.

Hazel Green Dormitory.

To those who are directing and to some degree responsible for the success of any Christian enterprise, it is a source of anxious solicitude, and indeed sometimes of mortification and pain, to have to urge with persistence Christians whose interests and duties are identical with their own to recognize and discharge their obligations as parties to a pledge. It has often been mentioned as a source of congratulation and gratitude that our missionary women generally have only to know the requirements of our work to prompt them to cheerfully and liberally assist in meeting them, especially when the needs are obvious and immediate, as they are in our Hazel Green Dormitory. Before the beginning of the September term we must provide comfortable and cheap boarding accommodations for the pupils who come in from the surrounding counties to attend our C. W. B. M. school. Under the painstaking and successful management of Prof. W. H. Cord and wife, the institution is growing into the proportions (about 100 pupils) and efficiency which we have desired, and certainly we can not afford to have its progress hampered by lack of energy on our part. The help of any Christian or philanthropist, who has it in his or her heart to contribute to the immediate home work of permanently improving the condition of our own mountain people, would be gratefully received and applied in enlarging the facilities of the Hazel Green school.

Our Kentucky C. W. B. M. auxiliaries have $2,000 to raise, and the sooner each one goes heartily to work, determined to make this unavoidable duty a pleasure as well, Presto! the money will be in a plain substantial house to shelter our boys and girls while they are being trained in heart and mind and life for wise and efficient service. We say our girls and boys, for they are ours, bound to us by a cable of many cords; ties of blood, though it may seem alien, State ties and those of commercial interests; ties of tender sympathy prompting us to share our countless blessings with them and the love of Christ constraining us to fit them to plant the banner of the cross on every mountain top in Eastern Kentucky and sow the seed of the kingdom in all hearts, teaching them to "Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification, without which no man shall see the Lord." To this especial work our Kentucky women are pledged before our Woman's General Board, and indeed before the Christian church of our nation, but what is of infinitely greater importance before him who said, "Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me," "By their fruits shall ye know them." You see, dear sisters, it is not a question of convenience or even option whether each auxiliary will make a determined effort to raise the amount requested of them or not. If you have not hitherto been a constant and reliable helper of our C. W. B. M., allowing none to impeach your fidelity and honor as Christian women by doing your share of the work, this certainly is the time to assert and hold your place in the ranks. The claims upon us can not be set aside by being ignored. The peculiar and pressing nature of this call leaves us no room for indifference or shirking. There is not half a dozen, or four, or even two determined workers in any Christian organization that can not raise from fifty to two hundred dollars if they will to do it. We have confidence in our Kentucky women,—their strong convictions of duty, their unswerving integrity, and their strength of purpose to accomplish that whereunto they set their wills. We hope that even the smallest and feeblest auxiliary will make an energetic effort to send to Miss Lois White, 160 N. Delaware street, Indianapolis, Ind., a liberal donation to our Hazel Green Dormitory, so marking the contribution when it is sent. This earnest plea comes to you as a personal call from our Kentucky C. W. B. M. Executive Committee, who willingly and cheerfully share in the work, but can not discharge your part of the obligation.—Miss Susie Sublette, Secretary, for Executive Committee, in Apostolic Guide.
